Parents: Please review this schedule and notify us immediately if your child will miss any of the listed rehearsals. Unexcused absences may jeopardize the students participation in the performances. Excused absences are illness, injury, or family emergencies only. Participation in performances is at the sole discretion of the directors. Please note that for these rehearsals your child may be done earlier than listed times. At times rehearsals may go longer than listed. If your child needs to leave during one of these situations, please have them excuse themselves at the listed finish time. There are no excused absences for the stage rehearsals.

Performances will begin at 7:00 p.m. and 2:30 p.m. respectively, but all students will need to sign in at an earlier time. Schedule is subject to change or modification.

Theater Policies

REHEARSAL AND PERFORMANCE REMINDERS

All levels: Please make sure you follow the Attire and Dress-code for all dancewear. For the Winter Presentation rehearsals and performances, make sure you have at least one extra set of class attire. It is important to have an extra set throughout the year and rotate between them. This is a good practice to follow in case something happens to the attire your wearing. Hair must be up in a bun, away from the face, no wispies or bangs, no personal decorations or hair-pieces. No jewelry, anklets, earrings or nail polish of any kind. Also no glitter, sparkle make-up, or sparkles in hair. NO EXCEPTIONS. Specific jewelry related to costumes will be at the request of the directors. If you are dancing a "character" role remember to bring your character shoes.

Please bring plenty of extra hair pins, bobby pins and hair nets. If you are unsure how to put your child's hair in a proper bun, we have an instructional handout at the studio. Shorter hair needs to also be pulled back away from the face. Try doing your child's hair at home a few times and you'll see, like anything, practice makes perfect.

Clean, proper fitting shoes without holes are a must. Ask the teacher or directors for proper fitting, but shoes need to fit like a glove and shoes that are too big present a danger as the child may trip over them. Tights should be the proper color, without runs or holes. A sharply dressed and well prepared student will ultimately perform better.

Pre-Primary - Level C Make sure to bring your white leotard and white socks. Socks must be white, without ruffles or designs. Be sure to have that extra set of dancewear with you. There is usually no need to wear underwear under a leotard, but if your child is more comfortable, they may wear a pair of white underwear without designs and please make sure underwear is sized so it does not show.

Level C Girls- For Dress Rehearsal and performance hair should be pulled up into a ½ pony-tail and curled with a curling iron. Hair needs to be away from the face.

Level Intermediate - Advanced - Make sure you bring your nude leotard with you. Do not forget extra attire, pointe shoes, and proper fitting panties to wear underneath your costume.

All performers will receive the map and directions to Pinnacle at a later date, with the Theater Policies. We ask that you reserve the entire day of December 17th and 18th for the performances with Scottsdale School of Ballet. If you have classes or other activities scheduled for this weekend, outside of SSB, please refrain from them for these days. It requires a lot of focus, concentration, and energy to present a good performance on-stage, so make sure your children are well rested.
